Western Lee County encompasses neighborhoods such as McGregor, Cypress Lake, and Pine Manor, positioned west of U.S. 41 and near the Caloosahatchee River. The area is primarily residential, with arterial roads including McGregor Boulevard and Colonial Boulevard providing connectivity to central Fort Myers and regional employment centers.

Multifamily properties are concentrated along U.S. 41 and near retail clusters, where land use favors garden-style and mid-rise communities adjacent to commercial services.

Demand drivers include access to healthcare facilities and schools within Fort Myers, as well as nearby parks and waterfront amenities that appeal to families and retirees. Development patterns lean toward low- to mid-density residential with infill opportunities near established commercial corridors. Residents are a mix of long-term households and seasonal renters drawn by affordability and connectivity to coastal amenities.

The Western Lee County multifamily submarket has a vacancy rate of 15.9% as of the third quarter of 2026. Over the past year, the submarket's vacancy rate has changed by 1.3%, a result of 670 units of net deliveries and 450 units of net absorption.

Western Lee County's vacancy rate of 15.9% compares to the submarket's five-year average of 11.5% and the 10-year average of 9.4%.

As of the third quarter of 2026, there are no multifamily units under construction in Western Lee County. In comparison, the submarket has averaged 438 units under construction annually over the past 10 years. The Western Lee County multifamily submarket contains roughly 9,600 units of inventory. The submarket has approximately 3,700 units rated 4 & 5 Star, 4,000 units rated 3 Star, and 1,900 units rated 1 & 2 Star.

Average rents in Western Lee County are $1,570/month, compared to the Fort Myers average of $1,750/month.

Rents have changed by -4.4% year over year in Western Lee County, matching the broader market average. Annual rent growth of -4.4% in Western Lee County compares to the submarket's five-year average of 1.7% and its 10-year average of 2.8%.

Western Lee County's multifamily inventory is dominated by garden-style assets, with a mix of older Class B properties and select newer communities near central Fort Myers. Ownership is highly fragmented, with private investors and regional operators controlling the majority of assets, while institutional presence remains limited.

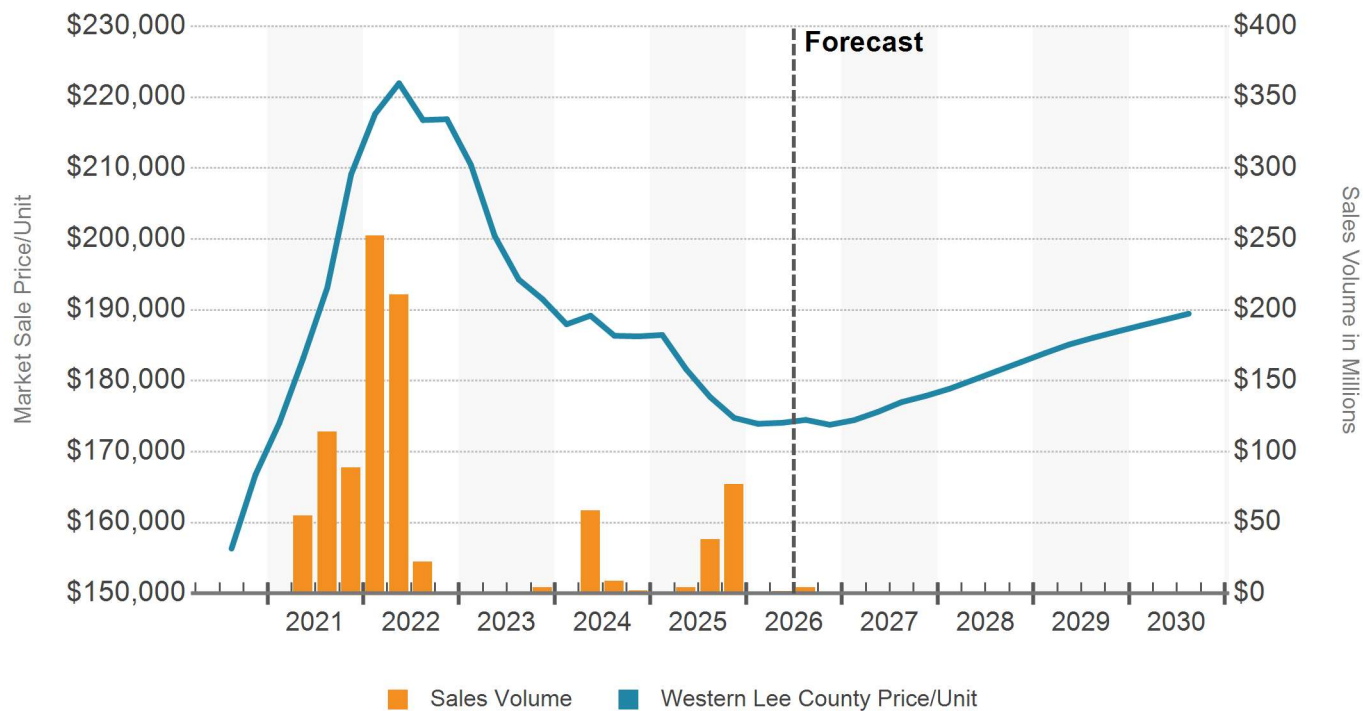

Larger portfolio trades are rare, and the submarket's value distribution skews toward mid-tier properties, reflecting its suburban character and moderate pricing relative to coastal Lee County.

Over the past five years, transactions have primarily involved private buyers, with occasional recapitalizations by national firms. Individual property trades dominate, with deal sizes varying widely, ranging from small local acquisitions to mid-sized assets comprising more than 300 units.

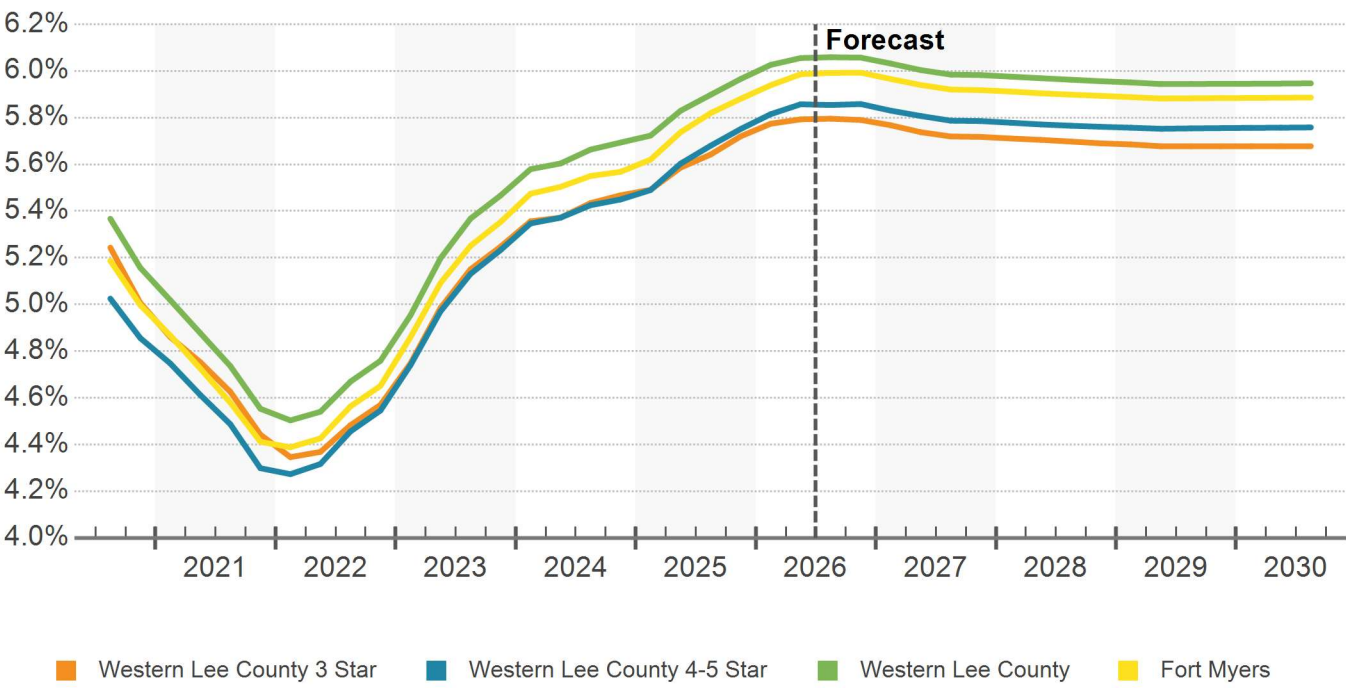

Over the past year, 6 multifamily properties traded in Western Lee County, accounting for 679 units of inventory turnover. Average annual inventory turnover in Western Lee County is 240 units over the past five years and 230 units over the past 10 years. Multifamily sales volume in Western Lee County has totaled $121 million over the past year. Average annual sales volume over the past five years is $168 million and $134 million over the past 10 years.

Estimated multifamily market pricing in Western Lee County is $170,000/unit compared to the market average of $230,000/unit. Average market pricing for Western Lee County is estimated at $220,000/unit for 4 & 5 Star properties, $150,000/unit for 3 Star assets, and $140,000/unit for 1 & 2 Star buildings. The estimated market cap rate for Western Lee County multifamily is 6.1% compared to the market average of 6.0%.
